

Announcements for Friday November 20, 2009

- The Virginia Beach Middle School Cheer Festival will be held on Monday at Salem Middle. Tickets will be on sale at $4 for adults and $2 for students. The festival will begin at 6:00, so come out and show your support for your panthers.
- Crime Solvers Club will be meeting in room 802, on Tuesday, November 24th. Please bring markers and coloring supplies to this meeting.
- Spirit wear will be on sale during all lunch bells today.
- Marching band will practice today after school.
- Intramurals are canceled for today.
- The Astronomy Club will meet today in room 306 after school. We will discuss the new date and targets for the December Star Party.
- NJHS students please pick up a new permission slip outside of Mrs. Peterson's office for the rescheduled NJHS meeting on Thursday December 3, 2009 in the cafeteria.
- All NJHS permission slips and essays for the Student Mentorship Program are due to Ms. Peterson or Ms. MacMillan by the end of the day.
- 7th and 8th grade students involved in the Johns Hopkins University Center for Talented Youth who are interested in participating in the PAMS after school mini-course "Surviving the SATs" should stop by Mrs. Peterson's room (#331, near boys' bathroom) to get a permission slip from the green folder. Permission slips are due by this Friday, November 20. Students who turn in permission slips past the due date will be placed on the "waiting list". Meeting days for the course are November 30, December 1, December 8, and December 15.
- Salem High Schools' Visual and Performing Arts Academy Open House has been rescheduled for December 2, 2009 at 7PM at Salem High School.
- Academy applications are available in the guidance office and on the VBCPS website.
- The PAMS Gifted Resource Program newsletter is available at http://www.princessannems.vbschools.com/gifted_news.pdf
- The P.A. Middle School store will be open every day in room 610. Room 610 is located in the hall by the large gym. It is open from 8:45-9:00 each morning. Come by and see what we have to offer!